

FHTM Announces Leadership Trip to Tucson

Lexington, KY, July 11, 2011 – FHTM Independent Representatives will be enjoying the beauty of the American Southwest as they travel to the Westin La Paloma Resort and Spa in the breathtaking Arizona desert. Representatives who qualify for the FHTM Leadership Travel Program will spend five days at this spectacular AAA 4-Diamond Resort.

“I’m really excited about making it out to Tucson. It’s absolutely gorgeous out there and every Leadership Trip has been first class,” said FHTM Executive Sales Manager Bill Harloff.

FHTM rewards hard work and successful sales efforts by sending qualifying Representatives to vacation in style all across the globe. The FHTM Leadership Travel Program was developed in 2010 and started off with a cruise of the Caribbean. Since then, qualifying Representatives have visited Paradise Island, Bahamas, Los Cabos, Mexico and Punta Cana, Dominican Republic.

About FHTM

Fortune Hi-Tech Marketing, Inc. is a rapidly growing, privately held direct selling company founded in 2001 by Paul Orberon in Lexington, KY. FHTM offers consumers a diverse lineup of products and services, including DISH Network, nutritionals, personal-care items, contacts, online music lessons, security services, wireless phone service and much more through an international network of independent sales representatives. To learn more, please visit www.fhtm.net.

Media Contact

Brian Wright

Public Relations Coordinator

Phone: 859.422.7015

Fax: 859.422.7024

bwright@fhtm.net

###