

May 20, 2010

FHTM Welcomes New Members to Legal Advisory Council

Lexington, KY – Fortune Hi-Tech Marketing, Inc. is pleased to welcome Robert Stephan and Chris Gorman to its newly formed Legal Advisory Council, which will offer expertise in matters relating to the company's policies and procedures. FHTM looks forward to the decades of experience and extensive knowledge of the law that they will bring to the company.

Both men join FHTM with impressive resumes that each include time served as state Attorneys General. Mr. Stephan was the Attorney General of Kansas from 1979 to 1995, while Mr. Gorman served as Kentucky's Attorney General from 1992 to 1996.

After graduating from the Washburn University School of Law in Topeka, Kansas in 1957, Mr. Stephan began practicing law in Wichita and in 1965 became a municipal court judge. Other positions he has held include district court judge, chairman of the Kansas Sentencing Committee, Co-Chair for the American Cancer Society Strategy Planning Committee and, most recently, Chair of the Attorney General's Senior Consumer Advisory Council.

Mr. Gorman graduated in 1967 from the University of Kentucky and in 1987 from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government Program for Senior Executives in State and Local Government. In addition to his term as Attorney General, he has held his own private law practice and was Vice President and General Counsel for the Taylor Building Corporation of America.

"We are extremely excited about establishing the Legal Advisory Council," FHTM Chief Business Officer Jeff Orberon said. "The knowledge and experience these gentlemen offer to our company will be invaluable in establishing FHTM as a leader in the direct selling industry."

-###-